Storage Table, Universal

PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

KL-4991-130 - Storage table, universal

Universally applicable in everyday workshop use for maintenance and repair work.

For organised and clear storage of tools, screws and other parts, especially during daily work directly on the vehicle.

Simply practical thanks to the infinitely height-adjustable shelf, which offers a variety of compartments and integrated storage options.

The sturdy frame with four swivel castors, two of which can be locked, enables excellent manoeuvrability and ensures a secure stand at all times.

To protect the vehicle from unsightly scratches, the column on the storage table is fitted with a soft protective pad.
